PRIVATE SLEUTHS ARE WARNED

CHIEF WILL WIELD 'BIG STICK'

Petersen Says Operatives Have "Mussed Up" Evidence

Gang of Boys Sought in the Vogel Murder Mystery

Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen today assumed personal control of the investigation of the brutal murder of Jacob Vogel and his wife, Elise, at their home, 2108 Galindo street, last Thursday night. The chief was for many years captain of detectives in Oakland and was recognized as one of the cleverest criminal investigators in California.

The action of the chief in taking charge of the investigation is believed to be due in part to the fact that the operations of the police have been interfered with to some extent by private detectives. The chief announced today that he would rigidly enforce regulations as to the extent to which private detectives will be permitted to operate.

The chief's ultimatum followed the discovery today of evidence that the murder may have been perpetrated by a gang of youthful bandits that have, of late infested Fruitvale and poolrooms are being watched in an effort to locate some of the suspected men.

"There are a bunch of private detectives working on this case," said Chief Petersen today. "They are stumbling over each other, muddling up the evidence and making almost impossible any sensible and rational handling of the case."

"I am issuing orders today that all the private detectives must work in conjunction with the police, so that in their action they will not interfere either with each other or with us. If they are not willing to work under my supervision they will have to get out and leave the case alone. The same thing occurred when we were investigating the dynamiting of Gallagher's home, and I was forced to threaten to lock some of these private operatives up to keep them off the case."

EVIDENCE IS CIRCUMSTANTIAL. "You must understand that this is a case in which everything will depend upon circumstantial evidence. If we were morally sure today that we knew the murderer we might not arrest him or them, as we have to get a circumstantial case, together with

Twins Are Born In Jitney Bus as Car Races Stork

Following a furious race between a jitney bus and the stork, in which the latter won, the twin children of Mrs. Evelyn Bates, born during a hurried dash from Hayward to the Alameda county infirmary, are dead at the institution, having been unable to survive the ordeal. The mother will live.

The race in which the stork proved swifter than the automobile occurred Saturday night. The driver of the automobile was accosted by Mrs. Bates, who is the wife of L. O. Bates, an Oakland electrical contractor, on the Hayward streets. She was in a serious condition and asked to be taken at once to the hospital. The driver, learning the nature of the case, drove at a break-neck pace to the infirmary, but arrived too late to save the lives of the little ones. Mrs. Bates was rushed to treatment at the hands of Dr. C. A. Wills, who announced today that she would recover.

HUBBY HELPS WIFE GET DIVORCE

Mrs. Julia McMullen Lundy, Piedmont society woman and member of a prominent family of Mendocino county, was surprised today when she learned that her husband, A. L. Lundy, wealthy business man of San Francisco, had caused to be entered a final decree in the divorce suit in which she was granted an interlocutory decree a year ago on the grounds of desertion.

In the meantime it was rumored that Lundy was planning to wed a San Francisco woman, who is said to have superseded his wife in his affection and for whom he left his home.

Mrs. Lundy resides at 145 Dracena avenue, Piedmont, with her minor son.

"Oh, I supposed that they were married by this time," Mrs. Lundy said today when asked regarding the affair. "I do not care to say who the other woman is, but she figured prominently in the newspapers in December, 1913, about the time I filed suit against my husband."

The Lundys were married in San Francisco, May 6, 1898. They separated October 16, 1911, and it was not until December 29, 1912, that Mrs. Lundy filed her suit for divorce. She alleged desertion and her husband did not contest the action. It was at his request, however, that

SHIP LOBBY INQUIRY IS BEGUN

Senate Votes Unanimously to Investigate Purchase Act

Negotiations of Cabinet to Be Part of Full Investigation

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Investigation of all charges of influences at work for and against the administration ship bill was ordered today by the senate. Administration Democrats and filibustering Republicans unanimously voted for a resolution to look into charges of lobbying by the so-called shipping trust and to inquire into any negotiations by administration officials to buy belligerent ships.

Vice-President Marshall at once appointed Senators Walsh, Simmons, Reed, Burton and Weeks, three Democrats and two Republicans, to make the inquiry.

There are only 15 working days left to the Sixty-third Congress. Some Senators were of the opinion that such an investigation, likely to be prolonged, made improbable the passage of the bill before March 4, and virtually assured an extra session if the President adhered to his determination to press the measure.

SENATOR REED'S RESOLUTION.

Senator Burton's original resolution to have the senate inquire whether there had been any negotiations by administration officials looking to the purchase of ships of belligerents, was amended by the committee which provides expenses for investigations, to include inquiry into charges of opposition to the bill by the so-called shipping trust and in that form was passed unanimously. While the Senate was acting, Secretary McAdoo was notifying Senator Fletcher that he was preparing all the information on the subject called for in the original resolution. The passage of the resolution was preceded by a vigorous speech by Senator Reed in defense of the secretary of the treasury and re-

NO NEUTRAL MAY SEND FOOD

Churchill Tells Parliament "Further Steps" Are Planned

Kaiser Initiates Basis of Ending Warfare on Shipping

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 15, 3:05 p. m.—In a statement to the House of Commons today Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, intimates that further action would be taken by the allies to prevent the importation of foodstuffs in neutral ships to Germany.

Mr. Churchill gave a review of the naval situation, in introducing the navy estimates. He said that at the outbreak of the war, the supplies of ammunition, men and oil were complete. Every ship in the navy which was fit for service, as well as new ships which were being built for foreign governments and armed merchantmen, had been fully manned.

"I am informed that should a good long spell of hot weather come along the draw would shrink and then it could be opened. Kindly open things up, so the boats can get to the exposition before the exposition closes its doors. Respectfully,

R. B. TAPPAN.

The board will consider relief measures.

HINDENBURG STOPS RUSSIAN INVASION

Czar's Troops, Forced From East Prussia, Resume Plan of Defending North Poland

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—(By Wireless to London, 6:55 p. m.)—The following announcement was made today by the Overseas News Agency:

"Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's third battle of the Mazurian Lakes will prove more disastrous to the Russians than the other two, from present indications. It is believed that 40,000 Russians were captured."

SLAVS MAY RETURN TO DEFENSIVE.

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, Feb. 15, via London, 2:30 p. m.—The forced retirement of the Russian army from East Prussia is expected to result in a reversion by the Russians to their original plan of conducting a defensive campaign on their own territory. It is pointed out here that this should result in an advantage to the Russians, in that Germany will be deprived of the transportation facilities which she was able to use with great effectiveness during the fighting within her own borders.

When an offensive campaign was undertaken and the Russians invaded East Prussia and Galicia early in the war, the Germans were forced to withdraw a large number of troops from the west. This was considered here to have contributed largely to the German reverse in the battle of the Marne. Russian officers say that the object of their offensive campaign has been achieved and that the disposition now is to fall back to their original plan of defensive operations on Russian soil, along a line from the Nieman river in the north through Ostrolenka, Raligrod and on to Graevo.

CARPATHIAN FIGHT RAGES.

With this program in operation, Russian observers say, it probably will be possible to retard the German advance and at the same time defensive operations will be easier because the Russians will be harassed no longer by the lightning changes along the German front.

In the southwest the Russians are holding the Carpathian passes of Wiskow and Nadworna against the German assaults and, according to reports reaching here, are daily capturing German and Austrian prisoners and guns.

Another battle, in which bayonet attacks were made by the Russians, is reported from Smolnikia. During the night the Russians surrounded an Austrian position and took prisoner ten officers and 409 men. Battles have occurred also at Kurimka, near Dukla and at Baligrod.

KING NICHOLAS IN PERIL.

By Associated Press.

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Feb. 15, via London, 12:15 p. m.—The members of the royal family of Montenegro were subjected yesterday in their residence at Rieka to much gun fire from two Austrian aeroplanes.

Rieka is a village near Lake Scutari, where the royal family passes the winter. King Nicholas, the queen and the princesses watched the aerial raiders from their palace windows. Several of the bullets fired from the aeroplanes fell near them.

The Austrian fleet on Sunday morning made a sortie from the Gulf of Cattaro and commenced the bombardment of the port of Antivari, Montenegro.

SUES TO GAIN $500,000 ESTATE

Suit to recover title to more than half a million dollars worth of property bequeathed to Minerva H. Roberts by her late John H. Roberts, founder of the Roberts Lumber Company, and builder of the Boca & Loyall railroad near Tahoe, was commenced in the Superior Court today by the widow against Wills H. Roberts, "a distant relative" of her husband.

Mrs. Roberts, who formerly resided in Sacramento, but who now lives in Oakland, alleges that following the death of her husband in 1910, she became fearful that certain of her relatives would make an attempt to have her declared incompetent and to appoint a guardian. She appealed to the defendant, she says, and offered him one-half of the yearly income from the valuable holdings if he would manage the estate.

Accordingly, Roberts, accompanied by an attorney, visited Mrs. Roberts in Sacramento, and had her sign an agreement which gave him title to the entire estate. Deeds were accordingly made out and Roberts went into complete possession

GERMANY MAKES PROPOSALS FOR ITALY'S PARTICIPATION IN WAR

ROME (Sunday), Feb. 14, 8:30 p. m.—The Idea Nazionale, a newspaper published in the interests of the National party, in its issue of today, publishes a forecast of German proposals to Italy, which reads as follows:

"Before the end of February Prince von Buelow, the German ambassador to Italy, will present to the Italian government a concrete proposal for Italian participation in the war on the side of Germany. This consists of the cession by Austria of the province of Trent and the rectification of the eastern Italian frontier by the addition of a strip of land going as far as the Isonzo river. In addition Germany will pledge herself to conclude a new treaty with Italy which will afford protection to Italy's Mediterranean interests."

"In exchange Italy is to take part at once in the war. She will occupy Tunis and help Turkey drive the English from Egypt, which will return under the dominion of the Sultan of Turkey. In addition the Italian fleet will attack the Anglo-French naval forces in the Mediterranean."

Continuing the Idea Nazionale says that Prince von Buelow referring to Trieste made this statement:

"It is impossible to give Trieste to Italy, because this sea port is the lung not of Austria, but of Germany."

At the conclusion of one of his conversations with the Italian statesmen, Prince von Buelow, according to this newspaper, made use of this phrase:

"Either Italy will be friendly towards us or we will treat her worse than we are treating England."

War Summary

By Associated Press.

The German government in a note presented today to the state department at Washington announced its willingness to consider receding from its intention of attacking British merchantmen provided Great Britain would desist from efforts to prevent foodstuffs from reaching the civil population of Germany. The German plan, this note says, is in retaliation for what is termed Great Britain's violation of international law by attempting to cut off the food supplies of non-combatants.

David Lloyd-George, British chancellor of the exchequer, estimated the cost of the war to the allies during the current year at $100,000,000. He said Great Britain could finance the war for five years out of the proceeds of her investments abroad.

The German troops are advancing rapidly everywhere in East Prussia, the Berlin war office says in its statement today. In Northern Poland, also, considerable gains are reported. Petrograd military commentators assert that Russia will gain an advantage in falling back to her own territory by depriving Germany of the use of the railroads which she employed effectively in transportation of troops along the front when the fighting was on German soil.

In Belgium yesterday the German bombing of our trenches was uninterrupted. From the great Dudo our heavy artillery inflicted damage on the mortars of the enemy. We occupied for a distance of about 250 yards a German trench along the roadway from Bethune to La Bassée.

Yesterday saw more spirited artillery exchanges in the vicinity of Lens, around Albert, between the Aire and the Oise in the suburbs of Soissons and at Vervins to the northeast of Valmy.

In the Argonne, in the direction of Bagatelle and Marie Thérèse, the fighting still continues with energy from trench to trench, but there have been no movements of infantry.

Between the Argonne and the Meuse, an attempt at attack by the German forces at a point between the village of Malancourt and the forest of the same name was promptly repelled.

"In Lorraine the enemy, after having driven back our advance guard, succeeded in occupying Signal Hill and the village of Nerry. A counter attack on our part drove the Germans back as far as the northern declivity of Signal Hill, where they still are holding their position in the fortifications.

"In the Vosges the German offensive movement which began along the two banks of the River Lautz was not pursued on the south bank. The enemy only bombarded our positions on the north bank of this stream. The Germans are being held in check by us in front of our advanced line at Langensfeldkopf in the forest of Remouchamps. French troops on skis have executed a very brilliant counter attack against the German positions on the sides of the mountain at this point. Yesterday afternoon a very heavy snowstorm blew over this locality."

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Feb. 15, via Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—We have learned the following statement today: "South of Tries, near St. Eloy, the Germans took about 900 meters of the enemy's positions. Counter attacks were without success."

"Equally unsuccessful was the enemy's attack in the district southwest of La Bassée. Several dozens of prisoners were taken by the Germans."

"An advanced trench which the Germans dug on February 2 near Suelkamp was taken back."

The Germans drove the enemy out of Semeray in the Lauch valley (Alsace). Remouchamps was evacuated by the enemy.

"North of Tilst (East Prussia), the enemy was driven out of Pikitupen and pushed in the direction of Tauroggen. On both sides of the frontier in the eastern lake district, engagements are in progress with the retreating enemy. German troops are advancing rapidly everywhere."

"German detachments marched in the Kehn district against the enemy, advancing beyond Lonsa."

"In the Vistula district the Germans gained further ground and occupied Radom."

"In previous engagements, besides a number of prisoners, six guns were taken. In Poland on the left of the Vistula there were no important changes."

ZEPPELIN BATTLES WITH FRENCH PLANES

GENEVA, via Paris, Feb. 15.—A thrilling aerial battle between Zeppelin dirigible balloons and French aeroplanes was witnessed yesterday by thousands of German and French troops in the trenches a little south of Muelhausen in Upper Alsace.

The Zeppelin came from the Black Forest and was sailing toward Belfort when it met the seaplanes, which were flying much lower. The conflict lasted for 40 minutes, both sides keeping up a continuous fire.

The aeroplanes struggled to reach a higher level, which would place them above the dirigible and had almost succeeded when the Zeppelin returned to the north at great speed.

FATHERS OF SIX PUT IN LAST RESERVIST CLASS

BERLIN, Feb. 15, by wireless to Sayville.—The Overseas News Agency says that according to telegrams printed in Italian newspapers the Serbian fortress of Semendria has been blown up by the explosion of its own powder magazine after being shelled by Austro-Hungarian artillery.

Semendria is a town on the Danube, 25 miles southeast of Belgrade.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 15.—M. Millerand, the French secretary of war, today issued the following note: "All reservists and territorials who are fathers of six children, even though already serving in the army, will be incorporated in the 1877 class, which will be the last class of reservists to be called to the colors."

practices of international law on the question of foodstuffs.

The German note adds that the Berlin government has information that English merchant vessels are being armed and have orders to sail in groups for protection and, further, that they would try to sink submarines. It declared that there was now no question of searching the merchant ships, but that German ships would fight them, because they now are held to be warships.

The note declares further that Great Britain, according to the information of Germany, intended to use neutral shipping would be in danger in the war zone. It was urged, therefore, that meanwhile neutral shipping observe the request of Germany and go around the north of Scotland, in the course which had been declared outside the war zone.

At the German embassy it was said no word had been received from Berlin to indicate how soon a reply to the American note might be looked for.

TELLS AMERICAN VIEW.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via London, Feb. 15.—The American ambassador, James W. Gerard, conferred last evening with the German foreign secretary, Herr von Jagow, regarding the American note, at the latter's request.

Nothing has been made public regarding the conference, but it is learned that the foreign office is now preparing an answer to the American note and the idea is entertained in certain quarters that Germany may suggest that the United States send an American warship to convoy American merchantmen through the danger zone, thus guaranteeing the neutrality of the vessels.

The National Zeitung publishes an interview with Ambassador Gerard concerning the situation brought about by the presentation of the American note to the German government relative to neutral shipping in the sea war zone recently created by Germany.

EXPECTS CONCILIATION.

The ambassador is reported as saying the note is couched in such conciliatory and friendly terms that he did not doubt it would have a favorable result.

Asked by the interviewer concerning the attitude of German-Americans, Ambassador Gerard is reported in the National Zeitung as having answered: "People in Germany are too ready to believe that the Americans would be first Germans and then Americans in case of war. Exactly opposite would be the case. American citizens of German birth are first and foremost Americans and the same spirit is true of Irish-Americans."

SCHMIDT'S RETURN IS SOUGHT

Extradition Papers Are Being Rushed to Completion

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 15.—The county board of supervisors granted today a request of Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, for $1000 to defray the expenses of extraditing and bringing here for trial Matthew A. Schmidt, alleged confederate of the McNamara dynamiters in the conspiracy which resulted in the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building October 1, 1910. Woolwine said he would leave for Sacramento tonight with requisition papers to be signed by Governor Johnson.

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—While assistants were taken certified transcripts of the indictments charging M. A. Schmidt with murder in connection with the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1910, Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, prepared to go before the board of county supervisors today to ask an appropriation to defray expenses of bringing the prisoner to this city for trial.

Orlie E. McManigal, the confessed conspirator, whose information certainly aided John D. Fredericks, former district attorney, to break down the defense of the McNamara brothers, may be a witness against Schmidt. McManigal was released from jail here only a few months ago and supplied with funds which took him, supposedly, to some foreign land. His present place of residence is known only to Fredericks and Malcolm McLaren, who was chief detective for Fredericks during the dynamite trials. Fredericks, who said last night that he would aid Woolwine, his successor, in every way possible, added today that while McManigal could not be forced to come here to testify, he might be prevailed upon to come of his own free will.

Woolwine's chief assistant, Harry E. Dean, completed the necessary documents upon authority of which Governor Johnson is expected to issue a requisition upon Governor Whitman of New York for the extradition of Schmidt. Woolwine expects to take the papers to Sacramento for the governor's signature and continue on to New York and Albany to present the requisition to Governor Whitman. Unless he encounters some obstacle in procuring funds Woolwine said he expected to leave for the state capital tonight and be in New York next Saturday.

There were reports last night that Schmidt, in consideration of giving information concerning the participation of men who have not yet been mentioned in the dynamiting conspiracy, might be offered a community. Woolwine said today he had received such reports, but had not considered anything so far. The extraditing of Schmidt and getting him to Los Angeles to face the indictments that have been pending against him since early in 1911 is expected without difficulty.

MAY FACE N. Y. CHARGES.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The arrest last night on Broadway of Matthew A. Schmidt, the alleged accomplice of J. E. McNamara in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times plant in 1910, may lead to the solution of the mystery surrounding the bomb explosion on July 4 at 182½ Lexington avenue, this city, when Arthur Caron, Charles Berg and Carl Henson, anarchists, were killed.

Although the Los Angeles authorities notified William J. Burns today that already men were on their way East to take Schmidt back to the coast. Acting Captain William J. Devee of the New York police declared it was not improbable that charges would be preferred against Schmidt in this city and that Los Angeles would have to wait until New York is through with the alleged dynamiter.

William J. Burns is expected to leave New York today for California to confer with officials of Los Angeles in regard to the mode of handling the Schmidt case. His wife and daughter are here now and he expects to meet them.

SERBIANS ANXIOUS TO OPPOSE GERMAN TROOPS

By Associated Press.

ROME, Feb. 15.—Prince George of Serbia, who has been in Italy recovering from wounds that have obliged him to use crutches, expressed the hope today that the war would surely end in the triumph of the allies, but admitted that this would require enormous sacrifices, especially of men. Already the Serbian army had given a magnificent example of heroism, endurance and self-sacrifice.

"The news that German troops will be sent to help the Austrians against Serbia," said Prince George, "fills my country and my fellow soldiers with pride, as they are anxious to be measured against those who consider themselves the first troops of Europe. If the central empires thought that such news would cause depression in Serbia, they are much mistaken, instead Serbia is extremely flattered."

INDIA VISTA IMPROVERS FAVOR ISSUE OF BONDS

At the last meeting of the India Vista Improvement Club, of which Fred S. Osmond is the president, they put themselves on record as being unanimous in favor of the issuance of the million-dollar bond, promised by Alameda county for the International Exposition. The members one and all promised their aid in doing everything in their power to convince the voters of the advisability of passing the bonds.

At a meeting in the Key Route Inn Saturday night the Women's Democratic Club of Alameda county went on record as favoring the exposition million-dollar bond. A resolution was also adopted favoring the purchase of the Joaquin Miller home by the city, and a telegram was sent President Wilson inviting him to be a guest of the local organization on his Western tour.

Apple Is Cause of Aged Man's Death After Long Fast

L. L. Boone, 67 years of age, died at the Receiving hospital last night from acute indigestion and dilation of the heart. Boone, who has been in destitute circumstances for some time, spent all day Saturday in San Francisco trying to effect arrangements by which he could be admitted to the Odd Fellows' Home for the Aged. He succeeded in gaining permission to go to the home, but while returning to Oakland to get his belongings fainted on the ferry-boat.

Boone was removed to the Receiving hospital, where efforts were made to save his life. It was learned that the only nourishment he had received during the day was an apple. The raw fruit eaten after a lengthy fast, caused indigestion.

Doctors W. H. Irwin, Stout, F. D. Cone and H. D. Bell worked over Boone for several hours. Their efforts were unavailing, and he died last night.

Boone had been living at 429 Thirteenth street. He was a native of Missouri. Little is known as to his affairs and it is not known whether he had relatives here. An inquest will be held at the morgue.

YOUTHS SOUGHT AS VOGEL SLAYERS

Police Working on New Clews in Big Fruitvale Mystery.

its place in a logical sequence. Nobody saw this murder, nobody saw the murderers either enter or leave the place. This murder may have been committed by one man or it may have been committed by several. We have to work these things out by deducing our theories from the facts. "I am convinced that Vogel died from strangulation from the silk handkerchief poked down his throat. It may have been forced down with some implement or with pencil. Mrs. Vogel was choked to death. Neither was killed by being struck over the head. We have numerous theories, but we are not ready to make them known or to say which we think is the more probable."

YOUTHS ARE SOUGHT.

That the murder of Jacob Vogel and his wife in their home at 3108 Galindo street, Fruitvale, was perpetrated by a gang of young Jesse James thugs which was interested in the defense of the McNamara brothers may be a witness against Schmidt. McManigal was released from jail here only a few months ago and supplied with funds which took him, supposedly, to some foreign land. His present place of residence is known only to Fredericks and Malcolm McLaren, who was chief detective for Fredericks during the dynamite trials. Fredericks, who said last night that he would aid Woolwine, his successor, in every way possible, added today that while McManigal could not be forced to come here to testify, he might be prevailed upon to come of his own free will.

Woolwine's chief assistant, Harry E. Dean, completed the necessary documents upon authority of which Governor Johnson is expected to issue a requisition upon Governor Whitman of New York for the extradition of Schmidt. Woolwine expects to take the papers to Sacramento for the governor's signature and continue on to New York and Albany to present the requisition to Governor Whitman. Unless he encounters some obstacle in procuring funds Woolwine said he expected to leave for the state capital tonight and be in New York next Saturday.

There were reports last night that Schmidt, in consideration of giving information concerning the participation of men who have not yet been mentioned in the dynamiting conspiracy, might be offered a community. Woolwine said today he had received such reports, but had not considered anything so far. The extraditing of Schmidt and getting him to Los Angeles to face the indictments that have been pending against him since early in 1911 is expected without difficulty.

WAR COST IS TOLD BY LLOYD GEORGE

Ten Billion Dollars This Year Is the Burden of Allies' Campaign.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 15, 3:53 p. m.—In a statement explanatory of the arrangements made at the recent conference between the finance ministers of France and Russia and himself in Paris, David Lloyd-George told the House of Commons this afternoon that the expenditures of the allies on the war would be two billion pounds sterling, of which Great Britain was spending more money than were the other allies. The present war, Mr. Lloyd-George said, was the most expensive in material, men and money that had ever been waged.

The police are mindful of a similar case five years ago when a Fruitvale grocer named Cook was murdered by a gang in which Percy Pembroke was a member. Three members of the gang were sentenced to terms in state prison. The murder of Cook was the result of his recognizing one of his youthful assailants.

Possible clews to the men who murdered the aged couple have been furnished the police by Matthew Walsh of 995 Arthur street, a motorman employed by the traction company. Walsh informed the police that on the night of the murder a couple of rough characters boarded his car at the Southern Pacific station in the lower end of Fruitvale avenue and rode to the vicinity of Galindo street. He said that they had ridden on the front end of his car, where the light was dim and that they had conversed in low tones in a language other than English.

That the aged banker and his wife were only murdered after they had recognized their assailants in the persons of the robber or robbers who visited their home is the opinion of the sleuths who have been working on the case.

In the opinion of the motorman the passengers were not exactly certain of their destination or were not familiar with the streets in that vicinity. It was about 7 o'clock, Walsh said, when they alighted from his car. About 11 o'clock the smaller of the two men again boarded the car and rode back to the station in time to catch a train bound for San Francisco.

One of the men wore a sandy mustache. His face was covered with pimples. He wore no collar. His suit was dark and his hat was black with the crown crushed. His companion also wore a dark suit and hat with the crown pushed up.

Arrangements for the funeral of the Vogels have not yet been completed. The funeral will be strictly private, however, and will take place later on in the week. Relatives from distant points are being awaited by the wife and daughters who are now in Oakland.

The inquest over the two bodies will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Mildred Hall, one of Vogel's daughters, is in Oakland from Carmel-by-the-Sea to attend this inquest, but she refused to make any statements.

WING SHOT'S WIDOW SUES ROBINSON ESTATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Anna M. Robinson, second wife of Gritenden Robinson, champion wing shot of the world, who died January 18, 1914, today filed an action toward her attorney, William Humphrey, to recover from the estate, which she has been managing in the name of her personal effects now in the hands of the executor, Senator Judge H. M. Abery, of Colusa county. She also wants $2500 damages, the result of being deprived, she says, of her property.

Following Robinson's death, Attorney Barbara Henley was appointed executor with Judge Abery, but he has since died, leaving the jurist in sole charge.

NIGHT IN HOSPITAL PROVES HE IS SAFE

Fearful that he had taken strichnine tablets instead of calomel, George Smith, a collector of 550½ Sixteenth street, rushed to the Emergency hospital last night believing that death was close upon his heels. He told his troubles to Stewart Emay and after taking ordinary precautions retired to bed for observation. This morning his condition was the worse and he returned home, promising that he would be careful not to mix pills boxes in the future.

Preparations are complete for the shirtwaist dance to be given by the Lesdral club Tuesday evening, February 16, in St. Anthony's hall, East Sixteenth street and Sixteenth avenue. This dance is to be the last entertainment given by the club before the Lenten season. The following committee is in charge: Frank Conover, A. Herzen, Part Kehler, George Meader and Richard Harding.

ENGLISH SEE ULTIMATUM IN NOTE

German Blockade and American Protest Hold Interest of Britons.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 15, 12:10 p. m.—The threatened submarine blockade of the ports of the British Isles is still an absorbing topic for English newspapers and the English people, and, judging from dispatches reaching here from the continent, Germany is equally interested.

The report that James W. Gerard, the American ambassador, has been requested to meet Emperor William at once on the eastern battle front taken in London to mean that Berlin probably will make a prompt reply to the American note to Germany. German comment on the situation which has arisen since Germany declared a war zone around the British Isles, insists that Washington should prevent the use of the American flag by Great Britain and demand a strict observation of the declaration of London as the best guarantee for the safety of American shipping. At the same time the Germans argue that submarines cannot be expected to make a search of hostile merchantmen before destroying them.

ABOUT UNITED STATES FLAG.

The English press insists upon regarding the note to Germany as a virtual ultimatum. It does not attempt to forecast Great Britain's reply to the Washington communication regarding the use of the American flag, but it does declare that Great Britain cannot forego her claim to the right to use a neutral flag in case of necessity. An indication that England is regarding the German threat as something more than a bluff is found in the fact that liners are today coming into British ports with their lifeboats slung out and wireless equipment provided.

No disposition has been made as to the connection has yet been made of the American steamer Wilhelmina. His ship now seems to be under the voluntary joint guardianship of the British foreign office and the American ambassador.

Unusually heavy artillery duels, according to reports from both sides, are proceeding in Belgium, but definite news as to results are lacking. In East Prussia the Germans still are advancing except at Lyck where the Russians are making a stand. Both sides claim successes in the Carpathians, while Vienna reports that the Austrians still are advancing in the Bukowina crownlands. In the center of the long eastern battle front quiet prevails, according to information of London with no change in the relative positions.

SHIP BILL LOBBY PUT UNDER PROBE

Senate Orders Investigation of Activities at the Capital.

newed charges that shipping interests had lobbied against the bill. The resolution directs inquiry on Whether an individual, firm or corporation in the United States has made loans or advances to any individual, firm or corporation owning ships which are detained in the ports of the United States or elsewhere to avoid the consequences of war.

Whether they have at any time obtained options upon any such ships?

Whether such persons or corporations having made loans or obtained such options have any direct or indirect connection with the government of the United States.

STILL OTHER POINTS.

What efforts the so-called shipping trust, or any firm, person or corporation engaged in shipping, have directly or indirectly made to prevent the passage of the ship purchase bill.

Whether any company of shipowners, or chamber of commerce or other body influenced or dominated by shipowners, whose vessels would compete with the ships to be purchased or retained under the provisions of said bill.

The day after the investigation resolution had been passed, Senator Reed hurried a parliamentary bombshell into the Republican ranks with a motion to table Senator Gallinger's pending motion to refer the rules committee the Reed special cloture rule for the shipping bill. For a moment the Republicans were thrown into disorder before they realized that the closure was on again.

LODGE SPEAKING.

On an objection, Vice-President Marshall sustained Mr. Reed's motion. Senator Lodge appealed, and on a vote to table the appeal, the administration Democrats were defeated by the seven insurgents voting with the Republicans. Senator Lodge then proceeded to address the Senate.

Paul M. Wurzburg of the Federal reserve board, whose name has been brought up in the Senate debates, was Senator Lodge's object of the bill. Many have questioned whether Kuhn Loeb & Co., of which he formerly was a member, was not interested in selling German ships to the government, made a statement today disclaiming he had ever discussed the ship bill with any one, and reiterating that he gave up all outside affiliation when he joined the federal board.

Conferences between President Wilson and Democrats of the House and Senate revealed wide diversity of views about calling an extra session, but developed that the President still is determined to have the bill passed even though it requires one.

Pesse of Fifty in Pursuit of Slayers

By Associated Press.

WALSENBERG, Colo., Feb. 15.—A posse of 50 men under command of Sheriff Jeff Part, traveling in automobiles and aided by cossacks on motorcycles are scouring the hills west of here today in an extended "drive" to round up the two unidentified men who on Saturday night killed William Dick, a mine operator near La Veta.

Let's yesterday, after a 20-hour search, it was supposed that the pursued had almost closed in upon the fugitives. Some time during the night, however, the invaders broke through the lines and fled in the direction of the Greenhorn mountains. As soon as the escape was discovered members of the posse were hurried in automobiles to various points and a new drive was begun.

The pursuit is handicapped by the rugged nature of the country.

A special committee of the circle has perfected the details for the children's night, and an elaborate program of musical and dramatic numbers have been arranged for the occasion. The members of the circle of the bay have been invited to attend. Their children will be honored guests.

At the last regular meeting of the circle, Mrs. Adele Saxby and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Saxby of Turlock, were among the visitors. Grand Captain Miller was also present.

EYELID FROM SKIN OF LEG.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Formal announcement of the candidacy of Mrs. William Cunningham Story of New York, president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, for a second term is made. The election will be April 1. Her opponent is Mrs. George Guernsey, state regent of Kansas.

WEST OAKLAND TRY-OUTS.

The West Oakland Athletic Club will hold a "try-out" night this evening on Eighth and Pine streets where young men will be tested and tried for charge and given an opportunity to show their ability with the gloves. Boys who excel in the judgment of Matchmaker Tommy Stimpson will be given places on the regular Wednesday night cards.

ROOS BROS.—HEESEMAN'S

ANNOUNCEMENT

Within a half hour of the business center of the city of Oaklana, there takes place next Saturday an event of national, if not international importance. The Panama Pacific International Exposition, the greatest World's Fair conceived by man throws open its gates. In reward for the faithfulness and loyalty of our employees we close our doors that day to give them an opportunity to participate in this auspicious event.

WOMAN TRAPS PROWLER IN HOME

Looking for Work, He Says; Held by the Police for Inquiry.

BERKELEY, Feb. 15.—Awakening from an afternoon nap yesterday to find a stranger prowl about her home, 112 Addison street, Berkeley, Miss Grace Clark, turning in a police station, caused the arrest of Arthur Henderson, a laborer. The man said he was looking for work. The authorities said he was looking for work, was freed of the charges, and placed against him and indicted will be tried on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Henderson's connection with a mysterious appearance in the hallways of the University Apartments on University avenue is also being investigated by police. J. C. Simpson, of these apartments declares Henderson is the same man he saw wandering about the hallways there, and who, he told the police, may have pulled the knot off a handkerchief which an apparent attempt to rifle had been made.

According to Simpson, he confronted the man, who declared his name was Joe Williams, his residence at Seventh and Hickory streets, Oakland, and that he was looking for work. There is no Hickory street in Oakland, the police declare.

It is believed to have been another man altogether whom Miss A. Head of 2720 Belrose avenue heard in her room late Saturday evening. Making as little noise as possible, Miss Head slipped to the telephone and informed the police. While the police were rushing to the scene the man finished his work, secured a pearl brooch and money to the extent of $35 and fled. There is no clue to his identity.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH TO HAVE LENTEN FEATURES

The season of Lent commences on Wednesday next. In church circles it is a season of prayer, self-denial and penance. Wednesday is known as Ash Wednesday, owing to the ceremony of the distribution of ashes which is held in the church on that day. At St. Mary's Church, Seventh and Jefferson streets, the downtown Catholic Church of Oakland, the Lenten season will be especially observed.

On Ash Wednesday there will be services at 7, 9 and 12 o'clock, with evening services at 8 o'clock, consisting of Lenten devotions, sermon and benediction.

The Rev. E. P. Dempsey, the blessing and distribution of ashes will take place at the 9 o'clock mass. The blessed ashes will be distributed also at the 12 o'clock service and after the evening devotions. The noon-time service is intended to give downtown working people a chance to be present at their lunch hour. On all the Sunday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of Lent there will be special Lenten devotions, a sermon on the passion and benediction. In order to make it convenient for working people to attend, these Lenten evening devotions will commence at 8 o'clock.

On all the Friday afternoons of Lent, commencing at 8:30 o'clock, there will be the stations of the cross, sermon and benediction. These afternoon devotions of Fridays are intended for the children, but adults who cannot conveniently attend the evening services will be admitted to the afternoon exercises. The music at these evening devotions will be given by the members of St. Mary's Young Ladies' Choir. As congregational singing is the vogue at St. Mary's for all evening services, the people will be asked to join in with the choir in the singing of familiar hymns.

ENORMOUS GRANDSTAND.

Numerous grandstands are being erected today, one of the largest of which is to stand in front of the Tower of Jewels, where the opening ceremonies will be held next Saturday. It will be completed this afternoon. Nearly 500 carpenters are working on the grandstand at the racetrack, where the world's greatest automobile drivers will compete for the Vanderbilt cup February 22 and the Grand Prix race a few days later.

Construction work is being rapidly finished on the mile long Joy Zone, where the cleanest and best amusements possible will be ready for the crowds by Saturday. It is possible that a few of the concessions will not be fully prepared, but the big majority will throw open their doors on time.

Fair commissioners from every climate took advantage of the sunshine to visit the exposition yesterday. They marched up and down and about the magnificent grounds, which rival Golden Gate Park in beauty, and inspected the exposition palaces and halls before they have been officially dedicated to the world. Hundreds of private individuals also inspected the Jewel City and found it good.

Besides the hundreds of artisans employed on the buildings and grandstands, other hundreds of gardeners are busy today raking and hoeing and obliterating all traces of the recent storm, which beat down blossoms and buds and caused some minor damage. Statuary is being scraped and cleaned and made fresh, and before tomorrow's sun comes up the ground details will have been put in splendid shape.

S. F. BEGINS MOST MOMENTOUS WEEK WOMAN'S ART HAS PLACE AT FAIR

Exposition Will Have General Cleaning and Polishing for Saturday.

Handiwork of Fresno Genius Decorates Palace of Plenty in Charming Way.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—In this area, which is woman's own, there are every day new accomplishments blossoming forth and taking their place in the realm of art for the expression of the beautiful in life. It is by no means limited to the sterner gender and when woman usurps the creative prerogative she usually produces something unique in a world by itself.

The Jewel City is ready, from the greatest to the smallest detail, and the coming week, predicted by the weather prophets as one of sunshine and fair weather, will see the general cleaning and polishing up in preparation for next Saturday's epoch-making event.

In the magnificent exposition palaces pronounced by artists to be the most wonderful examples of architecture ever known, the exhibits are practically complete and include everything under the sun, from the largest and latest type of engines to the smallest and most varied sorts of delicate instruments.

Earth has fairly been sifted of its wonderful things of all kinds to make the exhibits at this—the Panama-Pacific International Exposition—take care of previous collection ever gathered anywhere in the world.

MANY THOUSAND VISITORS.

San Francisco is swelled today by many thousands of visitors from practically every state in the Union and from many foreign lands, notwithstanding the titanic war which has disorganized ocean travel and caused tumult in Europe's capitals. Business took a decided upward trend today and the merchants and commercial leaders of the city said that San Francisco has entered upon a new era.

Dozens of special trains from Eastern points are en route here laden with exposition visitors and the steamships are entering port with capacity passenger lists. Citizens are getting ready for the opening day and filling larders with choice viands for the entertainment of their guests.

HOTEL OAKLAND FACES BUSY WEEK

Important Social Affairs and Meetings Scheduled at Popular Hostelry.

Several important social affairs and a number of meetings and other events are scheduled this week for the Hotel Oakland. Today the Child Welfare League met and tomorrow the Manufacturers' Committee luncheon will be held on the mezzanine floor. The Alameda County Median Society meeting is also scheduled for tomorrow.

The remainder of the schedule is as follows:

Wednesday—Luncheon: Rotary Club committee.

Thursday—Regular weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club; regular weekly dinner-dance; dinner, California Automobile Industries' Association.

FIFTH PICTURE THEATER INSTALLED AT FAIR

The fifth of half a dozen picture theaters was installed yesterday in the Palace of Education and Social Economy at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

This pleasant method will be used to teach in elaborate fashion the latest theories and experiments in education processes, with the accompaniment of lectures.

It will be possible to witness visible the fashions and the new, for example, in the treatment of the insane. With the "movies" will go whole sample rooms, cells and model colonies.

It will be possible to witness the latest experiments in outdoor education for the feeble and the well; all processes will be brought under one towering roof, and the pedagogues of half the world will no doubt converge there during the nine months to come.

In the center building the number of "spectacular" exhibits is confined primarily to one tiny corner, where a concessionaire has found modest floor space and a meager door overhead, where he can spread his act of wonders. It is not the intent of this building to depict inanimate objects, such as desks and blackboards; rather, the space will be given over to chart rooms, map rooms, progressive model rooms with guides in charge.

The progress of the motion picture ideal has been as remarkable since the last world's fair was held that a vast new field has been opened up. All educational processes worth considering will now be found in this exhibit palace or will be pictured therein through celluloid.

WILL SPEAK ON EFFICIENCY.

The weekly luncheon of the manufacturers' committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, consolidated, will be featured by the manager of H. P. Wellman factory and office equipment expert who has been working for the past few months on Oakland factories. Wellman will speak on factory and office efficiency.

AUTO BREAKS HIS LEG.

Corbett, 1100 Webster, 10th and Webster, street incurred a fractured left leg last night when he was struck by an automobile driven by Frank Freitas at Seventh and Polk streets. He was treated at the emergency hospital.

VALMO CLUB DANCE.

The Valmo Club has just completed arrangements for its second annual dance to be given on the eve of February 17th at Loring Hall, corner Eleventh and Clay streets. Those on the dance committee are Miss Fanzie Reich, Miss Leola Crowley, Jack Thompson and Milton Palmgren, chairman.

PASSPORTS ASKED FOR AT VERA CRUZ

Lakeside Park Monument Is Decorated and Salute Fired by Liscum Camp.

The members of the E. H. Liscum Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, held memorial services at Lakeside park yesterday in honor of the Maine, American warship blown up in Havana Harbor, February 11, 1898. The services consisted of decorating the Maine monument and firing a salute and sounding taps.

The affair was concluded by a musical and literary program, in which the Lexington Boys' Band, consisting of about 100 boys, played under the direction of John Smith, several veterans, and Miss Lucy Van de Mark, received a special Decree Issued by Carranza Applies to Foreigners as Well as Mexicans.

By Associated Press
VERA CRUZ, Feb. 15.—Passports again are required before a person can leave Vera Cruz by sea. A decree issued today by the Carranza government specifies that this regulation applies to all foreigners, as well as to citizens of Mexico.

One hundred thousand school teachers have been selected to go to the United States to study educational methods in that country. The salaries of the teachers will be paid by the Carranza government.

WILL REVIEW ATTACK.

By Associated Press
BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 15.—General Pardo Gonzales, with 5000 Carranza troops, passed through Victoria, Mex., today enroute to Monterrey to review the troops under Villa forces there, according to message from Victoria received by Carranza officials at Monterey after nearly two weeks fighting.

CARRANZA AS CENSOR.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—General Venustiano Carranza, the first chief of the constitutional army, notified the world today that all communications to his government from outside sources must pass through him. It directed to any general, he said, that must be referred to him anyhow Carranza's decree reached Washington through Harriet Zubarán, Carranza's minister of the interior who telegraphed it to Ellsworth Arredondo.

The order apparently will make it impossible for diplomatic representatives of foreign governments to deal with the Carranza government except by going to Vera Cruz which have been unwilling to do, lest such action be construed as formal recognition. Already most of the diplomats at Mexico City have asked their governments for permission to leave when the situation becomes intolerable and some of them have been advised to use their own discretion.

AFFECTS AMERICAN CONSUL.

The order may also affect the activity of American consular representatives, who heretofore have dealt with the de facto government, whatever it happened to be.

The telegram to Arredondo said:

"The first chief of the Constitutional army has been apprised of irregular cases wherein persons of diverse nationalities, styling themselves representatives of foreign colonies or large foreign interests established in Mexico, pretend to make representations, address communications and treat directly about matters of an international character with different leaders of the Constitutional army."

"This action, even in cases where it is taken by persons actually accredited, tends to disrupt the unity which should prevail in the constitutional government and to belittle the authority of the first chief of the Constitutional army, provoking disorder and lack of confidence in governmental decisions, with much danger for our cause. The defection of General Francisco Villa and other leaders of the northern division involves a painful experience which we must bear in mind to avoid in the future the lack of political discipline of inexperienced leaders."

MUST REFER MATTERS.

"Military leaders before whom such representations may be made must confine themselves to informing the representatives of the foreigners that they should take such matters up directly with the first chief of the Constitutional army."

Military leaders are warned to report promptly of political assistance emanating from foreigners."

While high officials were reluctant as to the future course of the United States government, it is evident that the treatment of foreigners in Mexico, the food famine in Mexico City and the plight of the diplomatic corps there have given the administration much concern.

POWER COMPANY RATES TO GO UNDER PROBE

"SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Declaring that the United Light and Power Company which supplies electricity for the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways and the San Francisco-Oakland and San Jose Railway, controlling the Key Route and the Oakland Traction Company, appeared to be charging excessive rates, and causing an enormous burden to rest upon the railroad companies, the Railroad Commission today, of its own motion, ordered an investigation to be held on February 23. Commissioner Max Thelen will preside.

The inquiries will be directed toward the United Light and Power Company and its charges for electric energy supplied to the railroads. In ordering the investigation, the Commission says:

"It appears that the units in control of the railroad company are also in control of the power company and that this fact secures to show that the contract imposes an enormous burden upon the railroad company with undue benefits to the power company."

"The attention of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways has already been directed to this matter, but as yet the company has not received any change in the contract."

It was at the time of the proposed purchase of the railroads by George Moore from the Smith-Hanford interests, and during a hearing before the Railroad Commission that the attention of the officials was called to the charges made by the United Light and Power for furnishing the current operating the trains and cars in Oakland and its environs. When Moore proposed to purchase the railroad companies for his principals, he intended to have the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways and the United Light and Power company to assist him in this transaction.

"The attention of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways has already been directed to this matter, but as yet the company has not received any change in the contract."

It was at the time of the proposed purchase of the railroads by George Moore from the Smith-Hanford interests, and during a hearing before the Railroad Commission that the attention of the officials was called to the charges made by the United Light and Power for furnishing the current operating the trains and cars in Oakland and its environs. When Moore proposed to purchase the railroad companies for his principals, he intended to have the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways and the United Light and Power company to assist him in this transaction.

The inquiries will be directed toward the United Light and Power Company and its charges for electric energy supplied to the railroads. In ordering the investigation, the Commission says:

Appetite Follows Good Digestion

Nearly everyone indulges their appetites and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with peptin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peptin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet strong, in action it quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peptin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For a free trial bottle write Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 422 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

SOLDIER HITS I. W. W. WHO OFFERED NATION INSULT

PORLND, Oregon, Feb. 15.—Taking the remarks of an I. W. W. speaker against Lincoln as an insult to Americans, Corporal M. J. Parcells, a soldier from Vancouver barracks, knocked the speaker from his stand on downtown street, and started a small riot, which was only quelled by the arrival of the police.

Parcells thrashed half a dozen of the orator's friends, and himself received a terrible beating, sustaining cuts on his face and head.

The trouble began when the speaker started to defame Abraham Lincoln. This angered Parcells, and he swung at the speaker, knocking him off the stand.

The fight became general. Parcells was pounced upon by nearly 30 in the crowd. Although greatly outnumbered, he put up a game fight until he was finally knocked down and trampled upon. Then the police rescued him.

CHARGE ON SKIIS.
GENEVA, via Paris, Feb. 15.—What is said to be the first bayonet charge on skis during the present war made in the Vosges mountains near Col-du-Bonhomme. Forty Alpine chasseurs with two officers were cut off by the Germans and were ordered to surrender. They refused and charged down the snow-covered slope on their skis into the German trenches, where a terrible struggle took place before the French soldiers were overcome.

Help Fair on Opening Day.

Next Saturday the Panama-Pacific Exposition opens its gates to the public, officially. It is planned to have a monster parade on that occasion and to invade the "Jewel City" by thousands and tens of thousands. San Francisco will do her utmost to make the event a notable one in her history, and San Francisco is a community that does things.

Oakland and Alameda county generally believe in this fair and will support it loyally. There is no jealousy on this side of the bay because San Francisco was the favored city; in fact Oakland and Alameda county contributed assistance to San Francisco in securing the great exposition. Oakland and Alameda county can lend valuable assistance to the opening of what will doubtless be the last great world's exposition in a decade by participating in the opening exercises. Of course we all know that distinguished persons this side of the bay have been selected for special duties and obligations on this auspicious occasion, but what THE TRIBUNE means is that the rank and file of this city and county should, by their presence, show their appreciation of this mighty event. It is the patriotic duty of every man and woman in Oakland and Alameda county to take a holiday next Saturday and visit San Francisco, participate in the great parade and by their actions make the event one of the most notable in the chronology of California.

The attorney-general of Texas has ruled the salad and punch used in an entertainment to Former Governor Colquitt cannot be paid for by legislative appropriation, salad and punch coming under the head of "groceries," which cannot be legally purchased by the State for the executive. Carried to a logical conclusion it looks as if champagne should be classed as "dry goods."

Improved Business Conditions.

That business conditions are improving no one can deny. Buying is more general than for some time. This impetus in commercial life is due in a great measure to the fact that stocks have been exhausted and must be replenished. Large stocks carried by retail merchants have been reduced to a point where replenishments are necessary, and from various sections of the country come reports that country merchants are making purchases of more liberal character than for two years.

To this must be added a statement that heavy increases in exports are having a stimulating effect upon trade and are responsible for a growth in confidence and greater investment in lines of staples and commodities which enter into always necessary consumption. In some quarters it is contended that the new banking system has accelerated trade, while other expert observers contend that it has had little bearing on the situation.

But whatever effect the reserve system may have had cuts little figure in the general analysis. Sufficient to say that business is improving, and the prospects are for continued improvement, despite adverse conditions caused by legislation untimely and ill-advised. The country appears to be healthy enough to prosper, not because of congressional enactments, but in spite of them.

Germany's press objects vigorously to the American note, but these objections will not be half as vigorous as the one filed by Uncle Samuel in the event a submarine sinks an American ship or destroys American lives.

James Creelman Dead.

Following an active career as a newspaperman, James Creelman, associate editor of the New York Mail, is dead in Berlin at the age of fifty-five years.

Creelman was one of the best known newspaper workers in the country. He has been in the harness since 1887, the year in which he began a career as a reporter on the New York Herald. He was later editor of the London and Paris edition of that paper and had connections with several leading magazines in a special capacity.

Creelman was noted as a war correspondent. He was in the Japanese-Chinese war in 1894, the Graeco-Turkish war of 1897 and the American-Spanish war in 1898, having been wounded at El Caney, where he was shot after having captured a Spanish flag.

Creelman held several important positions in New York, having been president of the civil service commission and a member of the board of education of that city. He was a Fellow of the Royal Geographic Society, the author of several books including a biography of former President Diaz of Mexico.

It is regrettable that so active a man as Creelman should pass out of life so early an age, for had he lived he would have doubtless achieved greater distinction through his usefulness to his fellow man. The fraternity to which he belonged and the hundreds of men and women with whom he has been in contact during his career will deeply deplore his death.

In the light of the request of the British government that the Australian States send all the meat available during the continuation of the war to Great Britain and France, it is fair to presume that Australian mutton chops will not be so plentiful on this coast hereafter. Now if the British government will request China to send her eggs in the same direction, there will be great joy in Petaluma.

Nevada's easy divorce bill has been referred to the senate committee on railroads. Speed is evidently desired.

Wheat and Corn Flour.

Economists in the corn belt, where such a movement would be expected to originate, suggest that in view of the high prices on wheat and consequent increase in the price of flour and bread, that corn meal be blended with flour in proportions of thirty-five per cent corn meal and sixty-five per cent flour, such blends to be marked in accordance with the pure food laws.

It is an excellent idea, no matter whether wheat be high in price or cheap. Our grandmothers used to blend rye flour with corn meal or "Injun" as it was generally known, for the purpose of making "rye and Injun" bread, said bread being wholesome, nourishing and altogether agreeable. It was sweetened with a small portion of old fashioned cane molasses and baked after being raised with yeast, and a slice of that with good butter was more like pastry than common bread, despite its homely title.

Corn meal is capable of being used in many ways. It can be made into delicious pones, "johnny cake," or plain corn bread, or used as the basis of desserts. In the New England and middle states a half century ago "Injun pudding" was a favorite adjunct to dinners, and there are few modern concoctions that excel this delightful dish, which was soothing, pleasant, healthful and altogether desirable.

The United States need not fear because wheat is rising in price. Corn meal is a splendid substitute for wheat flour at least half the time, and there are many reasons beside advance in cost of wheat why a substitution of corn meal would be beneficial either in peace or war times.

THEN WHAT IS THIS?

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

HAD SEEN THE GAME

The topic turned to hunting and Miss J. May Carter, daughter of Congressman Carter of Oklahoma, was reminded of the story about little Sambo.

Little Sambo was playing along the township road in his native southern state one afternoon when a stranger drove along in a big touring car. Sees Sambo, the stranger paused to ask the nearest direction to a certain town and then commented on the scenery.

"This is certainly a beautiful section of the country here," he remarked, with an admiring glance about him. "I believe I wouldn't mind hanging around here for a week or so."

"Yes, sir," commented Sambo, with native pride, "it sure am some country."

"How about game?" continued the stranger, looking toward a large wood.

"Well, we sure do, boss," was the quick rejoinder of Sambo. "Baseball on Saturday an' traps every day."

—Philadelphia Inquirer.

MENTIONED ONLY DEAD

Billy Sunday is a daring man. Last Sunday in Philadelphia he said: "Mike Flatt, Ed. Williamson and 'Silver' Flint, ball players in Anson's White Stockings, were golden drunkards, and I am after the whisky game. If they don't like what I say let them drop me in the river with a stone around my neck. I am not afraid to tell them what they are." However, the ball players he called drunkards are dead.

When this brave evangelist, who was the first named on the committee, was called names of drunkards, he did not mention any living ones.—Richmond Globe.

Longing for the Country

Some fellow back in Cincinnati started it and in order to use it and "make even," THE TRIBUNE has to add a stanza so here goes:

I am longing for the country where they still eat mush and milk. And where the cooks have not yet changed from wool to linoleum all.

Where the good wife still wears calico and house styles never fade.

Where the kids still smell of wood smoke, pot smoke and cigarettes.

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

I am longing for the country where I used to have cold feet.

Where the winters are a terror and the summers are a treat.

We are poor now and the children do not fear the outdoor air.

And a fellow's private business is no neighborhood affair.

—Nebraska Journal.

I am longing for the country. I am longing just to be.

Where I can let the whiskers grow up to the face of me.

Where I can let my hair grow in a wild and woolly way.

And where father does the farmin' and there ain't no board to pass.

—Houston Post.

I am longing for the country and its sizzling sausages.

Its hot jakes and maple syrup, its "milled cider" and its fizz.

Where they have mutton for breakfast and it doesn't cook in "fat";

Where there ain't no burned dyspepsia or anything like that.

Optimistic and Otherwise

PUNISH HIM ANY WAY, SAYS EDITOR.

Respecting the application of the San Quentin convict who pleaded guilty to passing "bungtown pennies" for $10 gold pieces, and is now serving time, but wants a pardon because it has been discovered there is no law on the statute books covering the offense, the Napa Journal says he was a thief anyway, and whether there is a law covering the case or not, he should serve out his term.

BILLY NUNES IN HIDING.

Courtland's correspondent of the Rio Vista News relates the following thrilling anecdote: "Friends of Billie Nunes have made a wide-world search for him, but as yet have been unable to locate him. We are told he has been hiding behind a little fuzz on his upper lip that he calls a mustache. At our last dance the supposed 'Billie' was taken for a Jap, and the ladies refused to dance with him. The fishermen near Painterville are complaining that fish are scarce in that vicinity since Billie turned 'goat' and that is going some; but that mustache is enough to frighten the d—l, so there is some excuse for the fish."

LET PHILADELPHIA KEEP BELL.

Willows Journal's man inclined to the belief that Californians are devoid of sentiment or else he is peevish because Philadelphia has not decided to send the Liberty Bell to the fair. Listen! It is about as well that the bell did not come. About one-half of the visitors to the fair would not pay any attention to it. A live "pig" show would be the greatest attraction. There is not much in the way of sentiment in California, and the people want fun, while the others seem bent on the dollar idea. The Liberty Bell is best at home. Those who wish can hear its tones every day over a phone wire."

THIS IS NO OFFENSE, EITHER.

An attendant at the Odd Fellows' Home in Yonkers, N. Y., put eight old persons to death either by chloroform or arsenic because they were too old to live longer," and confessed his crime. Now the district attorney says there is no chance for securing a conviction, because it would be necessary to find eyewitnesses to the murders the man admits having committed. The murderer ought to experience a great boom in the Empire state as the result of this opinion.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The appointment of a citizens' committee by Mayor Pader has given wonderful impetus to the sentiment in favor of securing the remains of the San Joaquin road for this city. Frederick Dolger, who was the first named on the committee, said he thought the committee would be able to do a great deal of work. He said he thought a $40,000 subscription could be raised in Oakland. E. A. Heron, another member of the committee, said they had not decided yet as to how much money the committee would attempt to raise.

The present dull season has had a depressive effect upon Fabulos' hotel, because collections from benefactors are not so liberal as they were formerly, while at the same time the number of charity patients has greatly increased.

As a means to raise money to keep the hospital up to its standard of excellence, it is proposed to have a grand horse show, in which there will be displayed fine animals and the magnificent equines which wear people of the city own.

Miss Ella Marie Taylor, who has been the guest of friends in Berkeley for several weeks, left Friday for Pomona where she will be married to James Blachowsky at the home of relatives next week. The young couple will establish their residence in Pomona.

INTERESTING ENGAGEMENT.

An interesting engagement just announced is that of Miss Gladys Okell, daughter of E. J. Okell of Suisun, to Heribert Williams Ross, son of Mrs. Collins of Piedmont. Mr. Okell is a graduate of Stanford University and a man of many friends in the upper set of Oakland. Her fiance, who is a nephew of Mr. Mark Lawrence Requa, is smelter superintendent of the Casa Pulcas mine at Almaden, Mexico, the young couple will reside after the marriage in the spring. She graduated from the University of California in the class of 1913.

ROOSEVELT PAYS TRIBUTE TO LATE WAR WRITER

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt sends the following message from Oyster Bay on the death of James Creelman, the famous war correspondent who has just died at his seat of duty in Berlin:

"I sincerely mourn the death of Mr. Creelman. He was one of the men who did honor to American journalism. I knew and valued him as a friend and I greatly admired his extraordinary insight, acumen and energy as a journalist. His death is a real loss."

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

DINNER ENDS WITH RELIEF EXPEDITION Guest Rushes Away and Entire Party Joins in

Mrs. Wickham Havens was seated happily at dinner at the Challen Parkers' the other evening when a telephone message struck consternation in the party. It was Mrs. Havens' birthday and the Parkers had arranged the dinner in her honor, but the message, which came with dessert, ended it. Guest of honor, hostess and guests all rushed to the Havens house as fast as motors and electric could take them.

A maid had telephoned that the house was flooded. A water pipe had burst and the steady stream from the Piedmont reservoir was pouring over the second story and dripping through to rooms below, where brocade walls and rare frescoes were in imminent danger.

The dinner party became a relief party rushing to the rescue of the Havens art treasures and advancing theories en route as to cause, effect and the quickest remedy. It was perfectly done.

The relief party reached the Havens house in record time and Mrs. Havens dashed in the doorway and into a laughing crowd of her friends, who filled the hallway and called happy birthday greetings to the bewildered and gradually understanding guest of honor.

There were the Percy Murdochs, R. C. Newells, Oscar Fitzalan Longs, Dennis Searies, Willard Williamson, the Proctors, Engs and others of the Piedmont set, who had been in the plot and had sent the message about broken pipes. It was a thorough success as a birthday surprise and a merry party that danced late in the Havens ballroom.

at the Bryant home in San Francisco, Miss Cowles' engagement to Ensign Arnold Marcus, a cousin of Miss Black, who announced last week that she is the daughter of Paul Cowles of San Francisco and New York, and makes her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Curtis, in San Francisco.

Miss Cowles invited to meet her at Miss Black's tea were Mr. Clinton Lee Montague, Miss Helen Winter, Miss Edith Clark, Miss Ruth Perkins, Miss Florence Braverman, Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Helen Hooper and Mrs. Frank Foy.

REASON FOR EMPTY PEWS IS SOUGHT

Alameda Pastor Finds That
Autos and Sunshine Keep Many From Church.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 15.—Rev. Frank K. Parker of the First Methodist Episcopal church last night gave the first of a series of sermons on "A Clinic on the Sunday Church Pew." He selected for his scripture, New 10:11, "Why is it that of that generation?" The subject of the sermon was "Our Modern Peacock."

"For several years I have tried to ascertain why the empty church pew exists," he declared. "My study has been so deep that it even calls a clinic now. I have tried to ascertain that the task demands expert diagnosis which I am not qualified to make. In addition, with the Society of Friends, they have the Alamedans, who will study such churches" and will tell us through a scientifically worked out formula precisely what side of the question is right and what is wrong. From the scientific and intelligent study of the question there will emerge a real solution of church work which will result in almost certain success.

AGE IS SKEPTICAL.

ONE young man, the spirit of the age, seemed all unwillingly interested in the automobile and its effect on religion. "We are lovers of sunshine. We are pagans." Some years ago from an investigation into church attendance in Alameda, as quoted in the Alameda Daily News, it was reported that the Alamedans, who were not members of any church, who will study such churches" and will tell us through a scientifically worked out formula precisely what side of the question is right and what is wrong. From the scientific and intelligent study of the question there will emerge a real solution of church work which will result in almost certain success.

"Comments on the indifference of men to the church, he says, it is not always so in American towns where it has always been in vogue, and then he asks, is such a community Christian or pagan? The worst feature of all is that modern paganism is spreading rapidly and tends to infect men throughout the west, and to a lesser proportion throughout the east also, who have suffered religion, Christian and Jewish, to fall out of their lives completely, as though it had never touched them.

CHURCH NOT DECLINING.

"There are empty pews and always have been in the history of the church that must be attributed to God and the church is not declining. But the people go to church and the world is growing better—in spots, it makes a difference in what spot you are living. To flippantly say the church pews are empty may be true, but it is not the whole story.

"Some pews, too many, are empty, but never in the history of this country were more people attending church, relatively to the entire population, than now. I see the rise and fall, and there are many who could scarcely find standing room at church. So church-going is largely a local question.

EUROPE FEELS SITUATION.

More than 20 years ago, Governor Rollin of New Hampshire issued a proclamation. The increasing Protestantism in New England, he said, was asserted that the rural churches in New Hampshire and the other Puritan communities were losing steadily in members and attendance, and that religion was a constant drain on the rural population. The rural church problem had justified the governor's opinion. But the rural church problem is only a phase of the general empty church pew question.

"Europe feels the situation as does the country. The Bishop of Birmingham made the statement that four-fifths of the population of Greater London were professed by the last census of attendance to religious worship, but at least one-fifth, if not two-fifths, to all form of worship. The archbishop of York has pointed out that in certain large centers of labor, one per cent of workingmen admitted that they belonged to any Christian body."

NEW FORCES AT WORK.

"This has become largely a question as to whether Christianity is able to lead and save the world today. Christianity as represented by the Christian churches in the past has never been less active, so earnest as to-day. The reformative forces are at work and the timer are perplexing. As Dr. Gilbert Chesteron says, 'Men have not got tired of God, but they have not had enough Christianity.' As far as the many who answered my letters is that men are not indifferent so much to religion as to the presentation of it made by many of the churches in which they belong.

"Their answers reveal the truth of Sabatier's statement that the world is 'incurably religious.' If it does not long survive for God, it longs for many things which are only possible by right relations with God. Religion is luxury but a necessity." So I conclude with Dr. Fairhurst that the church has lost adaptation to the environment in which it exists.

CHURCH IS CENSORED.

"In all the letters that I received with but several exceptions, the church is recognized as God's appointed agency for the advancement of truth and goodness. The church is held responsible for not being awake to her great responsibility and prompt to use her great opportunity. The church has been too much like a hospital for moral invalids or home for feeble-minded, and not enough of centers for the training of far-reaching spiritual power and leadership."

"They would have the call to duty and vigorous action in the great conflict between good and evil responded to more easily by the members. They ask for more of the art of realistic church life, that men of large vision and manifold interests might respond. The church must strip the world as never before, which means wiser and greater use of her equipment in men, in money and in power."

LENTEN WORSHIP THEMES FIXED BY NEWMAN CLUB

BERKELEY, Feb. 15.—A series of four lectures on some Bible teachings of St. John the Apostle will be given at the Newman Club, 1511 Telegraph, Berkeley, on Feb. 15, "The Life of Christ"; Feb. 22, "The Human Soul"; March 1, "The Non-Life of Self"; March 14, "The Restorer of Life."

The public is invited to attend the Lenten services in Newman Hall, Chapel.

POLITICAL CLUB NAMES OFFICERS AT MEETING

ALAMEDA, Feb. 15.—The Bay State Political Club has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, John H. Weston, the first vice-president, John S. Schilling; vice-president, Stanley Stevenson, secretary, Charles J. Jenkins, treasurer, Charles Moeller, sergeant-at-arms, James Eason.

The organization is to take part in the political campaign and will hold a meeting each Monday evening in Encinal hall.

Twelve Cooks Reverse the Adage

MISS FRANCES TEEL, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA CO-ED, LEARNING TO MIX A CAKE.

BERKELEY, Feb. 15.—Those materials require a good deal of mixing. Miss Teel, the co-ed oven is not too hot, Miss Beckley and Miss Matthews.

"They like best of all to learn the fancy dishes," says Miss Hyde, "which is a suitable feminine trait. But we have to make sure that they learn the substantial things as well."

In preparation for the work Miss Hyde, after graduating from Stanford, taught for a year at Worcester, Massachusetts, and then for a year at the Teachers' College of Columbia university. She formerly taught at Litchfield school in Connecticut and at the Farmers' Institute, and at the university, teaching through the State with a lecture course in kitchen tickets away in a suitcase. In addition to her university girls she is instructing a group of Berkeley matrons as well.

Miss Hyde takes care that they learn the rudiments of cooking from the bottom up. In a kitchen equipped for 12 they don their aprons twice a week and for two hours ply the mixing spoon or the egg-beater. Then, too, they learn how to wait on table, for the modern housewife needs to know what to do with her meal after she has prepared it in the opinion of Miss Hyde.

STONEWALL JACKSON'S GRANDSON ARRIVES

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Lieutenant Jackson Christian, U. S. A., grandson of "Stonewall" Jackson, arrived yesterday from the Philippines on the transport Logan, consumed with anxiety for the health of his famous grandmother, Mrs. Mary Anna Jackson, who is 85 years old and for some time has been critically ill at her home near Charlotte, N. C.

Having sailed hastily from Manila, by special leave, in response to a cablegram that his grandmother was failing rapidly Lieutenant Christian feared the worst and did not know until the Logan reached port that she still lives.

MUST PAY UP TO GET THEIR FACES BEFORE PUBLIC

BERKELEY, Feb. 15.—Junior students of the University of California have got to pay up if they expect to get their faces before the public. This is the situation which has been issued by the managers of the Blue and Gold, the university annual issued in April of each year by the third-year class.

The committee has been having a hard time trying to collect the assessment by which the juniors finance the book. Each of the students in the class has been photographed for the volume and his or her picture is ready for reproduction. But not a sign of it, the committee declares, will appear until the assessment is paid.

Work on the volume is making rapid progress and it is expected to make its appearance on time. The loss department is expected to be one of the features of the volume.

D. A. R. TO HOLD ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Feb. 15.—The seventh annual state conference of the Daughters of American Revolution will be held in the Native Sons' hall on February 15 and 16. Except in the case of the regents, all delegates and alternates must be elected. Coeur de Oro chapter, being under the jurisdiction of the San Joaquin section, will be the host chapter, so that the ensemble of the regents of the section will have the Pavlovs as a special feature of the afternoon.

GREETINGS BY WHEELER.

An address by Wheeler will be delivered by President W. E. Lee of the University of California. A panel of speakers will be present and alternates must be elected. Coeur de Oro chapter, being under the jurisdiction of the San Joaquin section, will be the host chapter, so that the ensemble of the regents of the section will have the Pavlovs as a special feature of the afternoon.

SPRING EQUAL TO ANY.

The mountain climber can find peaks equal to his capacity right here under nose. The nature lover, the geologist, the hunter, all need but travel a few dozen miles in place of several thousand, to find veritable Utopias. And it is no longer considered fashionable to cross the ocean for health resorts. The finest springs, hot, medicinal and all kinds, bubble and flow in our own country.

We are going to do our utmost to further the cause "See America First" movement. When we can wake the people in to the fact that there are in the mountains, valleys, deserts, peaks equal to any part of the globe and can induce them to at least pause to investigate before rushing off to Europe, millions of dollars will stay in the United States and left Switzerland, Norway, Finland and England.

Bridges there were exhibition games on Miss Eleanor Goeth and Miss Marjorie Rogers, who did the white "Génies" and an encore and the little tots, Dorothy Schroeder and Helen Brown, in their play.

Debutantes Spanish Girl, Miss Louise Meares as a Marguerite, were at the door and assisted the ladies of the section.

COSTUMES ARE VARIED.

Among the other noteworthy attractions will be the head costumes with some of the most attractive, those worn by Miss Chester Chipchase, who was stunning in black and silver as Night, Mrs. J. R. Dodge as a Colonial Dame, Mrs. W. E. Price as Mary Jane in a dainty white costume, Mrs. Mary E. Vinton in the white pavilion uniform, trimmed with gold

Aeolian Player Piano $420

Convenient Terms If Desired
Your Present Piano Taken in Exchange

The AEOLIAN PLAYER-PIANO is the latest achievement of the Aeolian Company, makers of the famous PIANOLA. Unquestionably, for the price, it is the greatest Player value ever offered. The moderate price is not the result of cheap workmanship or material, but is due solely to the high efficiency methods of the Aeolian Company, the largest manufacturers in the world of Pianos and Player-Pianos.

The AEOLIAN PLAYER-PIANO is an 88-note instrument, in mahogany, in the very latest Colonial design, and is equipped with these superior devices:

TEMPO LEVER, to regulate tempo or playing speed.
TONE GRADUATION LEVERS, for tone shading.
SUSTAINING PEDAL, direct control.
SIX-POINT MOTOR, running the music roll smoothly.
SILENT LEVER, eliminating the music when desired.
METAL TRACKER BAR, which cannot warp or crack.

AUTOMATIC TRACKER, exactly adjusting the apertures in the paper to those in the tracker bar.

And a score of other important features, found only on player higher-priced instruments.

In addition to obtaining a player action of such unusual merit, the AEOLIAN PLAYER-PIANO embraces a pianoforte of exceptional quality—a full, rich and sonorous tone; a touch of the utmost evenness and delicacy.

MISSING FOOTING AND IS THROWN FROM CAR

OREGON LEGISLATURE TO CONCLUDE ITS SESSION

By Associated Press.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 15.—Members of the Oregon Legislature, which will open the final week of its forty days' session Monday, were preparing today for a busy week. The session has been prolific of legislation, but several of the most important questions are still pending. Thirty-one bills have passed both houses and been signed by the Governor. Sixteen others have passed and are in the Governor's hands.

The statewide prohibition bill, now in the Senate, was the topic of major interest among the members and onlookers. It had been made a special order for next Tuesday and its advocates were claiming tonight that it would pass the Senate practically as it had come from the House.

Next to the prohibition bill, leaders in both houses were giving most attention to the appropriation bills. The problem of carrying out the economy program, to which the legislature is pledged, and at the same time provide funds for the growing needs of the various departments was regarded as difficult. Road legislation and proposed changes in laws governing collections of taxes were other measures of first importance yet to be disposed of in either house.

WITNESS FOR BECKER RETRACTS DEFENSE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—James Marshall, a negro, made sworn retraction here today of an affidavit he made in Philadelphia about his testimony in the trial of Charles Becker, police lieutenant, who was convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

Marshall's affidavit of yesterday was to the effect that he swore falsely at the Becker trial when he testified that he was present at the time the murder of Rosenthal was finally arraigned.

TAKES STRYCHNINE TO END FAMILY TROUBLES

Family troubles, augmented by the fact that he was spending more money than he was making, prompted George Scott, a actor, to take strychnine according to the story he told at the emergency hospital, where he had been taken from his home at 53½ Sixteenth street by the police. Dr. Frank B. Cone attended him and declared that the poison was all that could give the man an end, and that the man had evidently taken calomel.

Scott declared this morning that he had been drinking heavily in an effort to drown his sorrows, and finding that this treatment was ineffectual he decided to try the other route.

COLLIDES: FRACTURES LEG.

CORTEZ, Colo., Feb. 15.—A seven-year-old boy, the son of a woman who was riding a motorcycle when he collided with an automobile driven by Frank Freitas, seventeen, and Campbell streets. The accident occurred on Seventh street near the intersection of Campbell and Second street in opposite directions. Hardesty was taken to the emergency hospital by William Moreira, a friend. He was treated by Dr. Irvin and Reine.

AUTOS ON STATE ROADS IN CROWDS

Oil and Gasoline Valued at $9300; Tire Wear Is $375.

Redwood City, Feb. 15.—Gasoline valued at $7500 was consumed, $1000 worth of oil burned up and $375 worth of tires worn by automobiles on the State Highway in San Mateo county yesterday. Firemen at Redwood City said they were broken for motoring in the county, 3711 autos passing along the highway at San Mateo during the twelve hours from 7 in the morning until 7 in the evening. Chief of Police George Jones of Burlingame contacted the count and vouchers for its consumption the count and vouchers for its consumption.

Stockton, Feb. 15.—The sweep through the streets of the Mail Building at an early hour yesterday morning, wiping out the jobrooms of the Evening Mail and doing considerable damage to the composing room. Up to a late hour last night the publishers were unable to estimate the damage, as a minute examination had not been made of the linotype machines and other machinery. The plant, however, was well insured and the actual loss to the publishers probably will be small.

Selma, Feb. 15.—For the first time in the history of the organization, the San Joaquin Valley Federation of Labor, with the representation in the United Waterways Congress at San Francisco. Delegates to this body and federation of districts were elected here at the final session of a three-day convention.

Kingsburg, Feb. 15.—Organization of the Kingsburg Co-operative Canning company was effected here at a meeting of 200 peach growers, the object of the organization being to reduce production, pain around the heart, pain under and between the shoulders. In the neck, face or roof of mouth; torpid liver, constipation and gas. Three weeks' treatment, $1.00. The Blue Cross M-O-S, 321 Geary St., San Francisco.

Sacramento, Feb. 15.—The unstable state of affairs in the government of Mexico has raised a difficult problem in education, particularly between Governor Johnson for the return of Mexican bandits who are alleged to have murdered Postmaster Frank Volney Johnston on March 11, 1914, in a raid on a store in Tacateco, a border town in Sonora. State Council of San Diego county has voted that a regulation on the military government of Tia Juana would probably be ineffective and the governor is seeking for some method of cooperation with Alvaro Obregon to arrest the acts and punishment of the bandits who killed Johnston.

Kingsburg, Feb. 15.—Complete records from the $40,000 bond electric show that the four bonds covering the Kingsburg joint high school district, which includes five grammar school districts, by an overwhelming majority. The four districts are Kingsburg, Clay, Lemoore, and Riverbank. In Riverbank the bond lacked one vote of getting the required two-thirds. Work will start at once on the new building in order that it may be completed September 1.

Sausalito, Feb. 15.—Christ Church choir of Sausalito will sing "The Coming of the King" on Sunday, February 17. The choir of music is a combination by Dudley Buck, Harod, bass, will be sung by Godfrey Booth, former choir leader at the Reform Church of Victoria. Other soloists are: Estelle Theus, Clarendon, Sophie Menzie, soprano, Mrs. McLaughlin, contralto, and Ross Turman, tenor.

Chico, Feb. 15.—Horses ridden by Tom Wallace, foreman of the Parrot grant ranch, and his helper, Ed Jones, engaged in a fight in midstream while crossing Little Chico creek near this city, and as a result of the combat the riders and a mule one of the animals stumbled against the other and the fight was on.

Chico, Feb. 15.—Chico will be represented in the big dinner to be given by the California Society of Illinois in Chicago on February 10 by a large quantity of fruits and vegetables from this region. This is to be done on the invitation of the society giving the dinner in honor of Stephen T. Mather, a former Californian.

Stockton, Feb. 15.—Records placed on file here show that 3500 acres of land in the San Joaquin valley, valued at $40,000, has changed hands. Frank Stamford Johnson and Lewis Cowgill, as trustee for Johnson, deeded the land to George F. Lyon of the real estate firm of Lyon & Hoyt, 121 Franklin St., San Francisco, and the owners of Fudo-Fair, and is heavily interested in the Old River Land and Reclamation company, owning a tract adjoining the Johnson property on the west.

San Francisco, Feb. 15.—Hodes Bud-Levengrith, an Austrian tunnel worker, was stabbed and killed during a quarrel with a countryman at the corner of Leidesdorff and Sacramento streets early yesterday morning. The slayer escaped.

Marysville, Feb. 15.—Sheriff C. J. McCoy and District Attorney E. R. Marwell, with a posse, arrived here yesterday from Modesto. Placer is held in connection with the sending of whisky and candy loaded with strichnline to the family of Ferdinand Thibaut, an inn keeper in this city, in an attempt to keep him from testifying in the Wheaton riot in 1913, because the latter persisted in talking regarding anarchy. He believes that since that time Placer has borne him a grudge.

TERAUCHI ADDRESSES LIBERATED KOREANS

SEOUL, Korea, Feb. 15.—The Japanese governor-general of Korea General Teruaki, in notifying Baron von Chihiro, the ex-cabinet minister, and others who were sentenced to six years' imprisonment for an attempt to assassinate him, that amnesty had been granted them, addressed the liberated men to repay the mercy of the emperor by becoming useful citizens.

Now that a sound administration had replaced the former mal-administration in Korea, General Terauchi added, my confidence in the government has only increased, the measure that had been taken for the reconciliation of the people and to invite disaster. The general policy to make Korea an integral part of the empire and not a dependent dominion continued, the governor-general said, and every effort would be made to enhance the prosperity and the happiness of the people. A favorable impression was created by the amnesty decree.

TWO SOLDIERS DIE FOR WOMAN AFTER QUARREL

BROWNSTVILLE, Texas, Feb. 15.—Walter Bedenham, 1027 Seventh street, east of downtown, who was riding his motorcycle when he was hit by an automobile driven by Frank Freitas, seventeen, and Campbell streets. The accident occurred on Seventh street near the intersection of Campbell and Second street in opposite directions. Hardesty was taken to the emergency hospital by William Moreira, a friend. He was treated by Dr. Irvin and Reine.

Smith declared this morning that he had been drinking heavily in an effort to drown his sorrows, and finding that this treatment was ineffectual he decided to try the other route.

COLLIDES: FRACTURES LEG.

CORTEZ, Colo., Feb. 15.—A youth, 1027 Seventh street, east of downtown, who was riding his motorcycle when he was hit by an automobile driven by Frank Freitas, seventeen, and Campbell streets. The accident occurred on Seventh street near the intersection of Campbell and Second street in opposite directions. Hardesty was taken to the emergency hospital by William Moreira, a friend. He was treated by Dr. Irvin and Reine.

PORTLAND HOTEL BURNS.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 15.—Fire yesterday gutted the Alder Hotel, a four-story building near the center of the retail district, causing a loss of $75,000. Stores occupied the ground floor of the building and their stocks were practically ruined by flames, smoke and water. The fire started in the basement from an unknown cause. Several guests were taken from their rooms by way of fire escapes.

JAPAN INSISTS THAT CHINA ACCEPT DEMANDS

By Associated Press.

PEKING, Feb. 15.—The Chinese minister at Tokio today reported to his government that the Japanese foreign minister, Baron Takeaki Katao, had declared that Japan must insist on the acceptance of the total demands recently made in the Japanese note to China.

At the Chinese foreign office, however, it was said to be the intention of the Peking government to continue its refusal to accede in the Japanese demands.

WEI-HSIEN, Shantung, China, Feb. 15.—Wooden barracks are being constructed by the Japanese at every railway station except the smallest, along the line between Wei-Hsien and Tsing-Tau. Many of the buildings are nearing completion.

Tsing-Tau is the capital of the Chinese province of Shantung and is connected by rail through Wei-Hsien with Tsing-Tau, the port of the Kiau Chow concession, recently surrendered by the Germans to the Japanese troops. The distance by rail between Tsing-Tau and Tsing-Tau is approximately 225 miles.

HARKNESS ESTATE IS PUZZLE: NO WILL YET

LEXINGTON, Feb. 15.—According to information received here, no will has been left by Lamont Vanderbilt Harkness, master of Waln Farm in this country, who died in California several weeks ago.

Harry Harkness, one of the heirs to the estate, which is said to be worth $1,500,000, recently visited Lexington.
